BEER LIST

EVERYTHING'S GOLDEN

- MAREDSOUS BLONDE 7 (GOBLET)
(Belgium) DRAFT—This Belgian blonde is amazingly balanced: full and velvety on the palate, with clean honeyed notes to finish.
- GREAT LAKES BURNING RIVER 5
(Ohio) DRAFT—When the Cuyahoga River caught fire in 1969, many saw it as a portent of bad things to come. They obviously did not know about this pale ale: great balance, super-drinkable, and very refreshing.
- TRUMER PILS 5
(Berkeley/Salzburg) DRAFT—A classic German-style pilsner from Austria. Tight carbonation, nicely balanced, and a very crisp finish.
- HENNEPIN 5.5
(New York) DRAFT—An extraordinary American farmhouse ale with a light, frothy body; a banana and bubble gum nose; and a very lightly hopped finish. Yum.
- MILLER LITE 3.5 (DRAFT), 4 (BTL)
(Wisconsin) DRAFT—The American light lager.
- PERONI 5
(Italy) DRAFT—A clean-drinking, crisp Italian lager, with just enough bite.
- PEAK ORGANIC PALE ALE 5.5
(Massachusetts) DRAFT—We can't say enough about this brewery, or this beer: all organic, terrifically light, with the absolute perfect amount of hops. An excellent summer beer.
- HALF ACRE LAGER 5
(Chicago) DRAFT—Brewed near Lincoln and Irving, this lager is truly local: super-clean, smooth, and refreshingly balanced.
- POINT PALE ALE 4
(Wisconsin) DRAFT—A terrific pale: well bodied, crisp, and pleasantly hopped.
- LAGUNITAS IPA 5
(California) DRAFT—A standard-bearer of American West Coast IPAs: citrusy and light, with enough malts to come through the finishing hops.
- MAGIC HAT #9 5
(Vermont) DRAFT—Crispness and peaches are what mark this APA. Light, drinkable, and balanced.
- PILSNER URQUELL 5
(Czech Republic)—The iconic pilsner: malty, with slightly sweet honey notes, and some light hops to finish.
- CARLSBERG 5
(Denmark) DRAFT—A crisp, slightly rustic Danish pilsner. One of the world's best-selling beers.
- HEINEKEN 4.5
(Netherlands)—The classic.
- HEINEKEN LIGHT 4.5
(Netherlands)—A clean, flavorful light beer.
- CORONA 4.5
(Mexico)—Do we even need to say it?
- SIERRA NEVADA 4.5
(California)—One of the country's most popular pales: full-bodied, malty, with hops.
- COORS LIGHT 4
(Colorado)—Cold, crisp, and mountainous.
- PBR 2.5 (Tallboy)
(Wisconsin)—Tall and cold and hip.
- GRIMBERGEN BLONDE 6
(Belgium)—A yeasty nose, with a slightly sweet, honey-and-citrus front, nicely balanced with a hint of apple tartness in the middle, and a dry finish.

- UNIBROUE LA FIN DU MONDE 5
(Canada)—A triple-fermented, full golden ale with intertwining fruit, spice, and hop notes.
- JEVER 5
(Germany)—A true German pilsner: clean and refreshing with a distinctive palate, and a crisp, dry finish.
- DOGFISH 90 MINUTE 5
(Delaware)—A big IPA with a lot of malt to balance those famous Dogfish hops.
- CZECHVAR 5
(Czech Republic)—The original beer from Budvar: a golden, gently hopped lager with a pleasant, clean finish.
- NEWCASTLE 5
(England)—A very drinkable, classic English brown ale.
- PINKUS ORGANIC PILSNER 8.5 (.5L)
(Germany)—A classic German pilsner that is dry, medium-bodied, and clean.
- ANCHOR LIBERTY 5
(California)—A subtle, smooth, golden ale with pleasant, natural-style carbonation, and manageable hops.
- SAISON DUPONT 22 (750ML)
(France)—This French farmhouse ale is everything you love about beer: refreshing, complex, smooth, and delicious.
- AMSTEL LIGHT 4.5
(Netherlands)—Crisp, with hints of malts and hops, and a really clean finish.
- TWO BROS, BITTER END PALE 5
(Illinois)—Lighter on hops than most bitter or pale ales, this local beer is creamy and light, with nice caramel notes and hints of sweet citrus.
- 3 FLOYD'S PRIDE & JOY 5
(Indiana)—Citrusy hops on the nose, and a deep orange color make this American pale inviting. Lively, balanced, and subtle.
- DUVEL 7.5
(Belgium)—While there's two ways to say it, there's only one way to drink this triple-fermented ale: happily. It's creamy, complex, and refreshing.

COLD AND BROWN, OR RED ALL OVER

- UNIBROUE MAUDITE 6 (GOBLET)
(Canada) DRAFT—Robust, amber red ale with solid malts, light spice, and nice hops to finish.
- SMITHWICK'S 5.5
(Ireland) DRAFT—A classic Irish red ale with deep roasted-malt flavor, with a nicely bitter finish.
- HALF ACRE OVER ALE 5
(Chicago) DRAFT—The latest release from this super-local brewery is a deep amber color, with rich malts and hints of nut. Really, really good.
- DARK HORSE AMBER ALE 5
(Michigan)—Lots of bread on the nose and palate, with nice malty caramel notes. Yum.
- FAT TIRE 9 (22 OZ.)
(Colorado)—A hugely popular Belgian-style amber that is balanced and toasty, with a famous biscuit-like finish.
- ANCHOR STEAM 5
(California)—A deep, rich amber beer with a thick, creamy head brewed in San Francisco since 1896.
- TWO BROS CANE & EBEL 6.5
(Illinois)—This totally unique ale uses rye and palm sugar, giving it a fruity and vanilla-like flavor. Summit hops provide an aromatic, citrusy finish.

TWO BROS DOMAINE DUPAGE 5

(Illinois)—This French country-style ale has toasty, caramel notes with a little gentle fruit and florality in the middle, and just enough hops to cleanse.

( = DRAFT)

IN THE DARK

* GUINNESS 5.5 (20 OZ)

(Ireland) DRAFT—Absolutely peerless.

* GRIMBERGEN DUBBEL . . . 6.5 (GOBLET)

(Belgium) DRAFT—Dark, malt and treacle sweet with toffee notes and a warm finish.

SHINER BLACK LAGER 4

(Texas)—Forget the flagship bock, this dark lager is fantastic. Rich coffee and chocolate tones, with the refreshing crispness of a lager.

ROGUE CHOCOLATE STOUT . . . 11 (22OZ)

(Oregon)—Creamy, rich, and smooth with dark chocolate notes and a vanilla-coffee undertone. Who can resist?

SAMUEL SMITH'S OATMEAL STOUT . . 7

(England)—From one of England's oldest breweries, this stout uses oatmeal in addition to barley, giving it a uniquely smooth, rich flavor.

GREAT LAKES EDMUND FITZGERALD 5

(Ohio)—A complex, roasty porter with a bittersweet, chocolate-coffee taste and bold hops. Perhaps the perfect winter beer.

CHIMAY BLUE 11

(Belgium)—The Grande Reserve is a wonderfully smooth and balanced ale, with a fresh, yeasty nose, and warm notes of roasted malt throughout.

SO WHEAT!

* HOEGAARDEN 5

(Belgium) DRAFT—If you could take warm weather and pour it in a glass, it would taste like this legendary white ale: creamy, yeasty, with citrus and coriander notes. Delicious.

* BELL'S OBERON 5

(Michigan) DRAFT—One of Chicago's favorite warm-weather beers: big for a wheat, smooth, light, and delicious.

* BLUE MOON 5

(Colorado) DRAFT—Smooth and slightly sweet with distinct orange overtones.

* 3 FLOYD'S GUMBALL HEAD 5

(Indiana) DRAFT—This outstanding wheat beer from 3 Floyds is golden, with a touch of sweetness that is followed by a nice, hoppy bite.

HACKER PSCHORR 5.5

(Germany)—Sweet, refreshing, crisp, and malty-smooth.

UNIBROUE BLANCHE DE CHAMBLY . . 6

(Canada)—Unibroue's first beer on lees, this Witbier-style ale uses a blend of unmalted Quebec wheat, pale barley malt, spices, and natural aromatics. Creamy, fruity, and slightly sweet.

UNIBROUE EPHEMERE 6

(Canada)—Unbelievably light, with a distinct sweet apple flavor and a hint of fragrant spice.

TEMPTING FRUIT

MAGNER'S 5.5

(Ireland)—A crisp and ripe apple cider, with a slightly tart, clean finish.

BLACKTHORN CIDER 5

(UK)—A super-refreshing cider that has a pleasant ripe sweetness to the front, and a nice, tart finish.

LINDEMANS FRAMBOISE 11

(Belgium)—Gentle and smooth raspberry lambic with a wonderful aroma and an elegant, sparkling clean taste.

DARK HORSE RASPBERRY ALE 5

(Michigan)—Don't let the name fool you: even though this easy-drinking ale uses real raspberries, it isn't what you would expect from a typical "fruit" beer. It's light, refreshing, and finishes with a hint of fruit.
